

JUDGE LITTLE HOUSE
SPARTA, GEORGIA

HABS NO. GA-188

HABS
GA.
71. SPART
3.

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORIC AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY
HAROLD BUSH-BROWN, DISTRICT OFFICER
GEORGIA SCHOOL OF TECHNOLOGY, ATLANTA, GEORGIA

HABS
GA
71-SPARK

JUDGE LITTLE HOUSE

Sparta, Hancock County, Georgia

On ~~Main St.~~ coming from Milledgeville

1970 MISS SARAH FRANK LITTLE, GRAND DAUGHTER
Owner: (Mrs. Little (daughter-in-law of Judge Little).)

Date of Erection: 1797Architect - Builder: DR. TIMOTHY W. ROSSITER

Present Condition: Good. Two bays built forward at front on each side built before war and present porch between probably built at the same time.
Left wing in rear built later.

Number of Stories: One and one half. Faces South.

Materials of Construction: Foundation brick piers and curtain walls. Pine floors; frame construction; interior walls and ceilings of wide horizontal boards hand cut; roof now composition shingle.

Other Existing Records:

Additional Data: Sasnetts original owners. Now owned by Littles of same family. The original house had two rooms on each side of center hall.
Roof higher over front rooms of house with dormers, carries down lower over rear, the pitch being less steep than in front. Inside brick chimneys.
Good mantel in west room. Front porch has slender square wood supports in pairs with wood lattice work between. Windows from front rooms to porch extend to the floor.

Access to front corner projecting rooms from porch only.

Harold Bush-Brown

HAROLD BUSH-BROWN

DISTRICT OFFICER -HABS

Feb 10, 1937

3/10/37

110